Jottings
Played regularly for Southend United Reserves during his second season with the club and scored seven goals in a 9-2 win in a friendly against Borough Officials on 13.4.1912
At a meeting of the Management Committee of the Southern League on 13.8.1912, the transfer fee for his move from Southend United was reduced to £15
His only appearance for Croydon Common was the opening game of the season; a 2-2 draw away to Millwall Athletic in the SFA
He was badly injured playing for Croydon Common Reserves against Watford Reserves just days after his first team debut and never played for the club again
The Sporting Life erroneously reported that he played, and scored, in the return SFA match with Millwall Athletic a few days after his bad injury
