Jottings

The 1891 Census records him living with his father Frank (24), a stag horn merchant's bookkeeper, his mother Kate (23) and a brother Hugh (2)

No first team appearances for Luton Town

Played one season (1921-22) for Dartford, making 40 appearances in all competitions and scoring 12 goals

The Dartford programme of 25.1.1921 makes a play on his name stating that, in the game against Ashford, the ball had "BEeN NETTed more times by us"

Great things are expected of Bennett who was a regular member of the Cardiff team until he had the misfortune to break a collar bone (cs1914)
